

TARRALEAH

A unique Highland Estate on the edge of the wild Tasmanian wilderness, Australia.

Award winning accommodation on 300 acres includes a luxury Lodge, original Art deco deluxe cottages, plus sensibly priced rooms in the recently converted Highland schoolhouse

Waterfall walks, wildlife, stunning Tasmanian trout fishing, secret lake kayaking, high altitude golf, stars, mountain biking, pioneering history, views and the purest of air.

A fine dining restaurant, a contemporary café and a real Tasmanian pub.

On the Hobart - Strahan touring route, voted "One of Australia's Top Ten drives" - and less than two hours from Hobart, Launceston and Devonport; gateways to the unique Tasmanian wilderness.

Luxury Tasmanian Accommodation

The Lodge

- ✓ "One of the Best 65 New Hotels in the World" Condé Nast UK 2007
- ✓ "Top 20 most luxurious fishing Lodges in the World" Luxury Traveller
- ✓ "Hot list 07 – the insiders guide to scene-stealing hotels" Condé Nast USA
- ✓ Luxurious silk and mohair king size bedrooms; indulgent 'different' bathrooms
- ✓ Log fires, climate control, internet and over 120 malts in The Library Bar
- ✓ Dinner, breakfast, wine tasting, stars and cliff top hot tub inclusive from $590 per room night

Art deco cottages

- ✓ Deluxe three bedroom, self contained, original cottages refurbished and refreshed
- ✓ Polished wooden floorboards, Tasmanian fine furniture, queen beds, wood fires
- ✓ Art deco time capsules with lots of room and modern heating - even TV and dvd
- ✓ Laundry, 1930's style kitchen, 21st Centenary appliances, from $200 a night, min two nights stay

The Scholars House

- ✓ Contemporary conversion of the old Highland schoolhouse with fireside snug and rocking horse
- ✓ Two storey apartments with queen size bed upstairs and living area downstairs, sleeps up to three
- ✓ Laundry and internet access: family and 'less-abled' configurations; TV and dvd in every room
- ✓ Local pub within sight, short walk to café plus access to a fully equipped 'chef's kitchen'
- ✓ Fluffy towels, seriously comfortable beds and complimentary toiletries from $150 per room night

TARRALEAH

Fine Dining - great Tasmanian food and wine

Wildside Restaurant

- ✓ Unique presentation of outstanding Tasmanian fresh produce from farm, stream and field
- ✓ Comprehensive aged wine list of over 300 presented in a six metre wall of wine
- ✓ Views, roaring fire, crisp linen and very attentive service

Teez Café and Look Out!

- ✓ Contemporary, stylish architecture with Tasmanian art, leather lounges, open kitchen
- ✓ Two floors of comfortable chairs, mountain views and outside balconies
- ✓ Freshly made food cooked to order, home baked cakes and famous local pies, real coffee

The Highland Arms

- ✓ A Tasmanian pub with local beer and wine plus a selection of Highland malts
- ✓ Huge al fresco dining area, four separately themed internal areas
- ✓ Great home cooking, innovative menu, desserts worth licking the plate for and our own wines

Memorable wilderness activities and unique experiences

- ✓ World famous wild trout and Australia's best fly fishing guides
- ✓ High altitude 9 hole golf course with established fairways first played sixty years ago
- ✓ Stunning walks, waterfalls, trails and tracks; Tasmania's only elevated wooden walkway
- ✓ Unique Tasmanian wildlife – chocolate wattle bats, platypus, wombats, devils and maybe tigers..
- ✓ Over eighty bird species on the Estate including lyre birds, bronze cuckoos and the boobook owl
- ✓ Knowledgeable, engaging, even legendary, wilderness and adventure guides
- ✓ Mountain bike, kayak, 4wd tours cover wilderness plus Highland history and culture
- ✓ Gym, squash, pool table, massage and dramatic cliff top hot tub

T : 03 6289 0111 F : 03 6289 0136 Int P: + 613 6289 0111

E : info@Tarraleah.com W : www.tarraleah.com / www.tarraleahlodge.com

