'Beer Making' with Todd Mazur

Itinerary

Aim to arrive at Tarraleah before 10am to check-in at reception and collect your Welcome Kit with a Tarraleah Estate map. Your accommodation may not be ready until the afternoon. Make your way to Wildside Kitchen to meet Todd and your new home brewing friends from 10.15am. Enjoy morning tea and be ready for a 10.30am start.

Day 1:

- | | |
|---------|--|
| 10.30am | Don your Wildside apron, claim a home brewing kit, and let the beer brewing begin! You will craft flavoursome beer from scratch, under Todd's careful guidance, using his very special recipes |
| 1.00pm | Lunch delivered to your venue (your beers aren't ready to be left alone yet)
Continue making your beer, taste a few too! |
| 5.30pm | You may farewell your brew, until tomorrow...
Check into your accommodation if not already done so, and relax! |
| 7.00pm | Enjoy a 3-course Dinner in The Highlander Arms private dining room |
| 9.15pm | Join a half hour guided evening wildlife walk (complimentary optional activity) |

Day 2:

- Enjoy breakfast at your leisure – supplies are in your Cottage
- | | |
|------------------|--|
| 7.00am – 10.00am | Complimentary facilities and activities including clifftop hot tubs, sauna, gymnasium, Quoll track walk, Waterfall walk, Village run |
|------------------|--|
- Check-out of your accommodation by 10am
- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| 10.00am – 12.30pm | Observe the progress of the brews, learn about beer bottling, questions & answers. Option to arrange to meet your fellow brewers in 8 weeks time for a tasting of the finished products... Carefully place your new brew into your vehicle, ready to take it home to mature. Don't forget to take home all of your new equipment and apron. |
|-------------------|---|
- Farewell your new beer making friends until you meet again.

Now you have free time to enjoy the Highlands for the afternoon. There is plenty to do! Why not cast a line into a nearby trout-filled lake, or play 9 holes on Tasmania's highest golf course adjacent to the Estate?
